

said will, and generally all the conversation that took place upon this subject. State also, whether or not said will was executed by Mrs. Gibson? and if you know, what has become of it? The witness having answered that he was called upon after the filing of the bill in this cause, to prepare a will for Mrs. Gibson, and did accordingly prepare one agreeably to directions then received from her, demurred and protested against answering further, for the reasons stated in the demurrer, which was filed and returned with the commission as follows :

Philip F. Thomas' demurrer to the 4th Interrogatory of the Edmondsons and Lloyd.

The witness further says, in answer to this interrogatory, that all the conversation alluded to in this interrogatory, as having been had between him and Mrs. Rebecca Gibson, was entirely and solely in relation to the will he was about to draw for her, the provisions thereof, and her reasons for the same, during all which time he was, so far as the drawing of the said will was concerned, acting as her attorney. He, therefore, considers it as a confidential communication from her as client, to him as her attorney, and declines stating any thing in relation to the said conversation.

5th Interrogatory. Who, if any persons, were present at the time the conversations alluded to in the previous interrogatory, took place? and was there any thing in her conversations not intended to be heard by those present?

The said witness declines to answer this interrogatory for the reasons above stated as to the 4th interrogatory.

7th Interrogatory. Was, or not, the conversation alluded to in your protest or demurrer, held in the presence and hearing of other persons? If yea, who were the persons present, and, so far as you know, have they or not spoken of it, so as to make it public? and have you or not heard from Fayette Gibson the substance of said conversation?

The said witness in answer to this interrogatory, says, that he objects to answering the same, because if answered, he pre-
